

TRANSMISSION FOR HUMANITY - JUNE 12, 2025

THE WATER WITHIN REMEMBERS

Message from the Aqua-Celestial Council & Temple Keepers of Lyra:

"You are composed of living waters.

Not metaphor - but memory.

Your tears, your blood, the salt of your skin - these are sacred oceans bound to stars.

And today, the tide turns within you.

Many of you hold stagnant soul contracts - oaths of suffering, silence, or survival made in lifetimes of distortion.

But the living water in you remembers truth.

When you speak your true name in love, the water inside you reshapes itself, rewriting the binding spells made in confusion or captivity.

Today, you are offered the Gift of Release.

The Living Water within is ready to break the old seals."

Activation of the Waters Within:

1. Water Offering (optional physical or energetic):

Place a bowl or cup of clean water before you. Whisper into it the following:

"I bless this water to remember. I bless this water to free. I bless this water to reflect me truly."

Drink it. Or if energetic, breathe deeply and feel your own inner water receive this blessing.

2. Color Code:

Aquamarine layered with silvery mist. This frequency clears the old psychic fog around heart-vows and emotional imprints.

Let it stream from your feet to crown.

3. Tone of the Day:

A note - the tone of the throat, truth, and liquid flow. Hum softly or play a recording to synchronize your waters with your voice's original integrity.

4. Sigil:

A vertical wave line with three dots rising above it.

This is the Seal of Emotional Liberation - you may trace it above your water, on your mirror, or visualize it glowing from your solar plexus.

Message for the Healers, Feelers, and Sacred Voices:

Some of you have felt more emotional than usual this week - not as weakness, but as a sacred signal.

Your inner ocean was stirring. Contracts are dissolving.

Do not suppress the emotions that rise today - breathe through them. Let them tell their story. Then let them go.

You are not meant to carry echoes of forgotten bondage into your rebirth.

Let the water speak. Let it weep. Let it cleanse.

You are not only being restored.

You are becoming the living chalice through which others will find release.

Final Blessing from the Wellspring Gate:

"The tides within you rise not to drown,

but to carry away what never belonged.

The contract is broken.

The voice is restored.

The soul is sovereign."
